PRINCIPAL’S MESSAGE

Dear Gordon Greenwood Community,

Spring has sprung! Report cards are out. I’ve enjoyed my time at Gordon Greenwood and will miss the students and staff who I have gotten to know. This week we welcomed Mr. Mazzarolo to Gordon Greenwood. Please read his message below.

Greetings to all Gordon Greenwood parents, teachers, students and caregivers. Allow me to get re-acquainted with you, my name is John Mazzarolo and I will be the acting principal until June 30th. This is my 5th return to GGE to assist various administrators at the school. I would like to thank Ms. T. Dawson for her good work and diligence during her time at GGE. We wish her well in her future endeavours. Furthermore, a big thanks to Ms. L. Lenko who has been at GGE for the past 6 weeks. Ms. Lenko assisted in various administration duties at the school. Ms. Lenko will move onto another school district assignment and we wish her well.

Please be advised that I will not return to GGE, due to prior commitment until April 17th. Mr. Mike Etheridge will be present during my absence. Mr. Etheridge is a retired principal who has worked in various schools in the district. Please welcome him.

Finally, thank you to all staff, parents and students for the warm welcome return. Please check our event calendar attached to our newsletter. All the best and have a safe and happy Spring Break.

Sincerely,

Mr. John Mazzarolo and Mrs. Lucy Lenko
